FIELD EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

All Students Undertaking Field Education Must:

- have a signed placement description on file in the Field Education office

- register for the appropriate section (FE01, FE03, etc.); teaching church participants must also register for the practicum - EM71

Seniors who have not completed two units of field education and submitted the appropriate appraisals will not be eligible to graduate. Please contact the Office of Field Education (497-7971) immediately if this applies to you.

URBAN MINISTRY FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE

The Fund for Theological Education is sponsoring year-long internships for theological students interested in ministry in urban settings. This program is intended to encourage the development of new leadership for the urban mission of the church. Students are selected on the basis of nomination and application and are given the opportunity to work in urban contexts. A stipend is provided for the internship and scholarship support is given for the final year of seminary. Additional information on the nomination and application processes is available in the Office of Field Education.

SPEAKING AND PREACHING OPPORTUNITIES

The Office of Public Information frequently receives requests for pulpit supply preachers, individuals to lead retreats, adult and youth forum leaders, lecturers and speakers for various community groups. Those interested are encouraged to come to the Office of Public Information (Room 109, Administration Building) and list your name or call the office at 497-7760.

DRIVERS NEEDED

Want to visit faraway places and meet fascinating people? Become a Seminary Driver (Kennedy, LaGuardia, Newark, Philadelphia airports; local train stations, etc.) Good pay, use of Seminary vehicle, expenses reimbursed, flexible schedule. Mature, responsible persons wanted; good driving record a must. Apply Housing Office, Room 203, Templeton Hall.

RECYCLING TRASH CONTAINERS

In cooperation with Mercer County, Princeton Theological Seminary will start recycling September 25, 1989.

Yellow recycling containers will be put at each trash pick up point. Materials which are to be put in these containers include, food and beverage containers made of glass, aluminum, bi-metal composition and tin. Newspapers are to be bundled or tied with string and placed next to the recycling containers.

Office papers from Seminary Administrative offices should be placed in separate containers. This would include high-grade paper, fine paper, bond paper, off-set paper, xerographic paper, memo paper, duplication paper and related types of cellulosic materials containing not more than 10% volume weight of non-cellulosic materials, such as laminates, binders, coatings, or saturants.

Trash, other than the above, should be placed into the same trash collection containers now being used.

Stanley McKaig, superintendent of grounds and buildings, is asking everyone to help and make recycling a success. If you have any questions about recycling, please call Mr. McKaig at extension 7778.

CALLING ALL STUDENTS! HELP IS NEEDED!$$$!

The dedication of Templeton Hall is rapidly approaching and students are needed to assist the Dining Service in making this very special event truly memorable. Please contact student manager Kate Wissman or sign up in the front of the dining hall.

Templeton is to be dedicated on Sunday, October 8, and, with your help, it will be the "Dining Event of the Year!" All servers receive 2nd Year PDR rates and a small gift in thanks for your support. Hope to see many of you there!

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHRISTIANS AND JEWS OFFERS DIALOGUE FOR SEMINARIANS IN NORTHEAST

"Seminarians Interacting" is a program of the National Conference of Christians and Jews which involves interfaith theological reflection among seminarians in the Northeast through a program of seminary visits and workshops. Five Princeton Seminary students may enroll in the program.

For more information, contact Carolyn Nicholson, dean of student affairs (497-7880), or professor Dennis Olson (497-7769). To apply, write your name and two paragraphs on why you are interested in the program and what background or contributions you might bring to such an experience. DEADLINE IS SEPTEMBER 27.

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

SEMINAR ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Monday, October 2, 9:30 am - 3:30 pm, Center of Continuing Education, "Human Rights in the Reformed Tradition"

This seminar includes historical sketches of the relation of churches in the Reformed tradition to human rights, as well as theological formulations from John Calvin to Alan Boesak. Edward A. Dowey, Jr., Professor of the History of Christian Doctrine, emeritus, Princeton Seminary, is the seminar leader. Students and faculty may attend free of charge but must register (call 497-7990).

ENTERING PRESBYTERIANS

Monday, October 2, 6:30 pm, Stuart #5, Orientation to Candidacy for Entering Presbyterians

Entering Presbyterian students are requested to meet with the Seminary Resource Team and Dean Carolyn Nicholson for orientation to the procedures leading to ordination in the Presbyterian Church (USA). Topics discussed will include the role of the Seminary and the support services available here, and tips on working with a presbytery's Committee on Preparation for Ministry. Students may also raise other concerns.

WOMEN'S CENTER

Monday, October 2, 6:45 pm, Alexander Oratory

The Women's Center invites you to its first gathering. Please come for conversation and refreshments.

WORKSHOPS

Monday, October 2, 7:30 - 9:30 pm, Stuart Hall

The Lay School of Theology of the New Brunswick Presbytery is inviting members of the seminary community and spouses to attend one of two workshops to be held on campus on 5 consecutive Monday evenings: God and Human Suffering, Dr. Sang Lee, or The Church's Pastoral Ministries, Dr. Christie Neuger. For information, please contact the Christian Education office, 497-7910.

SENIOR CLASS ORGANIZING MEETING

Monday, October 2, 7:30 - 8:30 pm, Stuart #6

The Class of 1990 will hold its organizational meeting. Decisions will be made on electing officers, selecting a commencement speaker, and setting up committees to plan various class events. The meeting will be moderated by Todd Anderson and Bill Federici.

SENIOR REQUIREMENT

Wednesday, October 4, 1:30 pm, Stuart #5, Senior Class: Profiles of Ministry Casebook
All seniors are required to participate in this assessment of personal strengths for and orientation toward ministry. Those who cannot be present on Wednesday afternoon should contact the Dean of Student Affairs' office (497-7880) for an individual appointment.

SENIOR CLASS PHOTO

The Student Placement Office reminds all seniors that the Class of 1990 photo will be taken on Wednesday, October 11, at 10:20 am on the chapel steps. Rain date is Thursday, October 12, same time and place.

PREPARATION FOR ORDS

To help Presbyterian seniors prepare for ordination examinations, Bill Chapman, executive for the ordination examinations, will be here on October 16, between 7:00 and 9:00 pm in Stuart #6. Don't miss it! Seniors will want to pick up the new Packet to Prepare for Ords in Dean Nicholson's office (210 Templeton Hall) as soon as possible. This year's exams are scheduled for November 3-4.

In order to take ords you must be authorized by your presbytery. Authorization must be received in Louisville by OCTOBER 4. If you have any questions, please contact the office of the Dean of Student Affairs (497-7880).

HYACINTH FOUNDATION AIDS PROJECT

The Hyacinth Foundation, the leading AIDS support service and community education organization in New Jersey and Bucks County, Pa., is currently seeking mental health professionals and graduate students with concentrations in mental health and social work-related fields to volunteer in direct service to people with AIDS.

After completing the volunteer training program, participants will be involved as buddy-team coordinators, client intake interviewers, and support group facilitators or other areas. The next volunteer orientation and training program will be November 18 and 19. Interested students should contact Mr. Charles White, project coordinator, at the Hyacinth Foundation (609) 497-0595, or come to the office of Field Education, 304 Templeton Hall, for additional information.

FIELD EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

All Students Undertaking Field Education Must:

forum leaders, lecturers and speakers for various community groups. Those interested are encouraged to come to the office of Public Information (Room 109, Administration Building) and list your name or call the office at 497-7760.

PROJECT VOTE AND YOU!!

The League of Women Voters of the Princeton Area is promoting voter registration before the November gubernatorial elections.

If you are 18 years of age, native-born or a naturalized citizen, and have lived in the county in which you are registering for at least 30 days, you can register by simply submitting a mail-in form which has been witnessed by any other registered New Jersey voter; a special registrar is not needed. Forms must be sent to your election division by Tuesday, October 10.

You do not have to declare party preference when you register, and voter registration lists are no longer the sole source for names for jury duty. For forms or further information, call the League of Women Voters Information Service during business hours - 800-792-8836, or Linda Mather, president of the Princeton Chapter, at 609-921-3173.

FREE SUBSCRIPTIONS

Presbyterian students of all levels are invited to sign up for a free subscription to "The Presbyterian Outlook" for the academic year 1989-1990. This weekly publication contains news of the PC (U.S.A) and other denominations, articles, Bible studies, and book reviews. The sign-up sheets are posted in the SENIOR PLACEMENT OFFICE (201 Templeton); MACKAY CENTER (foyer kiosk); and the bulletin board opposite the off-campus mail boxes in HODGE HALL. The deadline is Friday, October 20.

HYACINTH FOUNDATION AIDS PROJECT

The Hyacinth Foundation, the leading AIDS support service and community education organization in New Jersey and Bucks County, Pa., is currently seeking mental health professionals and graduate students with concentrations in mental health and social work-related fields to volunteer in direct service to people with AIDS.

After completing the volunteer training program, participants will be involved as buddy-team coordinators, client intake interviewers, and support group facilitators or other areas. The next volunteer orientation and training program will be November 18 and 19. Interested students should contact Mr. Charles White, project coordinator, at the Hyacinth Foundation (609) 497-0595, or come to the office of Field Education, 304 Templeton Hall, for additional information.

PROJECT VOTE AND YOU!!

The League of Women Voters of the Princeton Area is promoting voter registration before the November gubernatorial elections.

If you are 18 years of age, native-born or a naturalized citizen, and have lived in the county in which you are registering for at least 30 days, you can register by simply submitting a mail-in form which has been witnessed by any other registered New Jersey voter; a special registrar is not needed. Forms must be sent to your election division by Tuesday, October 10.

You do not have to declare party preference when you register, and voter registration lists are no longer the sole source for names for jury duty. For forms or further information, call the League of Women Voters Information Service during business hours - 800-792-8836, or Linda Mather, president of the Princeton Chapter, at 609-921-3173.

ORDER YOUR PHOTOS

On the Sunday of Orientation two pictures were taken on the steps of Miller Chapel - one of entering students and one with their spouses. They can be seen at the Vocations and Admissions Office, 308 Templeton Hall, where orders may be placed. The cost is $4.00 each. Orders will be taken until October 27.

SGA NEEDS BUDGETS & REPS

The Student Government representatives will be meeting each Tuesday at 12:40 pm in the Student Government room, upstairs in Mackay Campus Center. Any interested student may attend these meetings. Campus organizations who receive funds through the SGA are encouraged to submit their budget proposals by October 16. Any junior interested in running for election as Junior Class Representative should complete a petition available on the SGA bulletin board in the Campus Center lobby. Each person should also submit a brief biographical statement that will be placed at the voting table to provide information for voters. These petitions and statements should be taken to the SGA box in the mail room in the Administration Building by Friday, October 13. The election will be held on Monday, October 16.

SGA MINUTES

Minutes of all meeting of the Student Government will be posted on the SGA bulletin board the Friday following the Tuesday meeting. At the October 10 meeting the representatives worked on the SGA budget. All student organizations must submit their budget requests by October 23 if they wish to receive allocated funds from the SGA budget.

AMERC

AMERC, Appalachian Ministries Educational Resource Center, is sponsoring two travel seminars to rural centers of ministry in January, 1990. The seminars, titled "The Church at Work in Central and Northern Appalachia," are designed to enable participants to "identify major life issues being or needing to be addressed by the Church in Appalachia in this decade including religious convictions and practices in lifestyles, unemployment, environment . . .," and "to visit a variety of church-related endeavors - both ecumenical and denominational models." The total cost for either seminar including room, board and travel, is $900. Specific dates and additional information and applications may be obtained from the Office of Field Education.

MANDATORY EVACUATION 10/25

All fire/smoke alarms (in dormitories, offices, classrooms, etc.) will be tested on Wednesday, October 25 between 1-3 pm. New insurance regulations require that buildings are vacated by all persons when fire alarms are being tested.

COMPUTER LAB FOR STUDENTS

The Computer Center, located in LL3 on the lower level of Templeton Hall, is now open to students from 8 am to 11 pm Monday-Thursday and Friday, 8 am to 4:30 pm except during computer class hours which are posted in the Center. The Center houses several Apple IIGS, IBM, and Macintosh computers. We have a large variety of software packages including: WordPerfect, Lotus, Dbase III, PageMaker, AppleWorks, NewsRoom, PrintShop, and much more. Stop in and check us out.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Stewardship Committee still needs people who are interested in working on this year's programs so that all planned events can be accomplished. If you would like to become involved as a member of a subcommittee or in a leadership position, contact "The Stewardship Committee" through campus mail. The subcommittees are: the Annual Stewardship Pledge Campaign; Solicitations: Project Proposals and Funding Recipients; Health and Hunger Concerns; the Annual Book Sale; Special Events; Publicity and Publications; the World Hunger Run; the Coffee House, and the Art Auction.

NOW HIRING: The Office of Financial Aid is looking for someone to work approximately 10 hours per week in the position of Student Assistant. Responsibilities will entail the maintenance and filing of student files, the processing of Financial Aid Transcripts, and the execution of light secretarial duties as directed by the Financial Aid Office Staff. Please contact Matthew Spina, Director of Financial Aid at 497-7710.

CENTREX ASSISTANTS Students and/or student spouses needed to be on call to fill in on the switchboard when needed. Hours are 10:00 am-10:15 am; 12:30 pm-1:30 pm; and 3:00 pm to 3:15 pm, Monday thru Friday. Also, full days when needed, 8:30 am to 5:00 pm. No experience necessary. We will train. Anyone interested in signing up should call Linda Opdyke at (609) 921-8300 or Personnel at (609)497-7720.

POSTAGE MACHINE The U.S. Postal Service has provided P.T.S. with a postage machine for the convenience of the entire Seminary community. It is located in the basement of the Administration Building outside the Mail Room. Stamps in various quantities can be purchased at standard U.S. Postal rates. All are invited to use this machine at their convenience. (Please read the instructions on the machine carefully before you attempt to use it since it is only capable of refunding a maximum of $3.25 in change when used)

THEOLOGY TODAY Now in its 46th year of publication, Theology Today is one of the foremost religious quarterlies in the world. A special student discount of $15 is available for a one-year (4 issues) subscription. See Nancy Pike at 305 Templeton, or Deb Hannay and Millie Snyder, Student Assistants.

SGA MINUTES At the Student Government meeting on November 14, the representatives learned from Lee Kinney that the first issue of the student newspaper, Testament, will be out in a couple of weeks. Lee shared the plans for that publication this year. The representatives voted to reimburse Amnesty International and partially to reimburse Plowshares for the money used to fund the Clergy for Peace meeting. Also at this meeting, the representatives discussed their role as student advocates with the administration of the seminary.

STUDENT MAIL DELIVERY

As you know, the Student Mail Delivery system goes into effect December 1, 1989. To assist you in corresponding with each other, we have compiled a student mail box # directory. This directory is alphabetized and will only be published once per year during the Fall term.

If you are addressing a letter to another student on campus the proper format for this is as follows: John Doe
SBN #999

By properly addressing your intra-campus correspondence, you will be ensuring the prompt delivery of your letter.

Your copy of the Student Mail Box # Directory for 1989-90 will be placed in your box after Thanksgiving so it will be available when you pick up your mail box key.

Also, please remember that all U.S. mail forwarded to you from your correspondents should be addressed as follows: NAME
SBN_____. P.T.S.
BOX 5204
PRINCETON, N.J. 08543-5204

If you have any questions, please feel free to call the Financial Aid Office at ext. 7710 or the Mail Room directly at ext. 7713.

BLOODMOBILE

Well Done P.T.S.! On behalf of the Seminary, the Princeton Red Cross and the Penn-Jersey Blood Program, I want to thank all of those who took part in the Fall BLOODMOBILE. Our number of donors was higher than in recent blood drives, with 89 registered. Your willingness to donate will help many with medical emergencies. There is always a need for blood donations. All those who would like to contribute but were unable to schedule a donation on Nov. 15th can donate at the Princeton Medical Center. Call Carol Troy at the Princeton Red Cross for an appointment -- 924-2404. Have it credited to the Seminary.....and THANK YOU AGAIN!!

POSSIBLE SEMINARY-WIDE DAY-LONG RETREAT

Do you find ministry tires you out more than refreshes you? We're interesting in Retreating to the Church to explore how our chosen life work can be a source of joy, excitement, and creative thinking. Ideas are being tossed around for a seminary-wide, day-long retreat early next semester. Students, faculty, staff, and spouses are invited to plan this retreat. If you're interested in brainstorming with us, contact Michael Livingston at the Chapel, (497-7980) or Julie Cowie, 497-1946, as soon as possible. We plan to meet before Christmas.

PRINCETON SEMINARY BULLETIN

Free copies of the latest issue of The Princeton Seminary Bulletin will be available to students at the Bulletin Office (305 Templeton) on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings.

Included in this issue are: Fred Craddock, "The Last Temptation of the Church"; Alan Neely, "Mission as Kenosis"; and John H.Leith, "Reformed Preaching Today."

ORIENTATION PICTURES

The Orientation/Registration pictures taken on the steps of Miller Chapel have arrived. For those persons who ordered and paid for the picture, it may be picked up in Room 308 Templeton Hall.

POST M.DIV. FELLOWSHIP

Applications are now being received for a one-year post-M.Div. fellowship at Tuebingen University in Germany. Interested seniors should apply by letter to Dean Conrad Massa in the Administration Building no later than March 15, 1990. Applicants must also submit a Princeton Seminary transcript and two letters of recommendation from faculty members. Knowledge of German is required.

RESIDENTS OF ALEXANDER AND BROWN HALLS

If you need housing over any part of the Christmas vacation, and have not yet returned your reservation sheet to the Housing Office, please do so right away so arrangements can be made for you. These two dorms will be closed from Sunday, December 24 through noon on Tuesday, January 2.

You will receive your specific assignment for temporary housing after December 18.

NOTE; RESIDENTS OF HODGE AND ERDMAN HALLS. For your safety and security, the outside doors of these two dormitories will be locked from Sunday, December 24 through Tuesday, January 2. You will need to use your outside key to gain access.

DIRECTORY

At long last! The 1989 - 90 Princeton Theological Seminary Directory is scheduled for delivery to campus mailboxes during the week of December 11. Check your mailbox. Also, please direct any corrections or changes to Stella Williams, Registrar's Office, ext. 7820.

GENERAL NOTICES

PRESBYTERIAN ORDINATION EXAMS

The Bible Content exam, one of the five exams required for Presbyterian ordination, will be given Friday, February 2nd. Students are encouraged to take this exam their first year in Seminary. Please sign up in the office of the Dean of Student Affairs, before December 15th if possible.
N.B. December 31 is the deadline for new applications (from your presbytery) to take ordination exams February 16-17.

MIDDLE EAST, INDIA, INDONESIA PROGRAMS

Students interested in the EC 39 study program in the Middle East, or India, or Indonesia should submit name, class, phone number, campus address, and a short paragraph outlining reasons for their interest to Prof. Charles Ryerson through campus mail. Requirements are outlined in the PTS Catalogue on page 83. Applications submitted before Christmas express only a strong interest, not a final commitment, but later applications will be accepted only in exceptional circumstances. Middlers given preference. Dr. Ryerson or members of last year's groups may be contacted for further information.

CENTRAL AMERICA SUMMER PROGRAM

Students interested in studying in the EC 39 summer program in Central America should fill out, and submit, application forms (which can be obtained in Room 222 Speer) to Prof. Mark Taylor. Requirements are outlined in the PTS Catalogue, page 83. Applications submitted now are not a final commitment, but an expression of strong interest. Later applications will not be considered except in exceptional circumstances. Middlers given preference.

SP 91: PRESENTATION SKILLS FOR WORSHIP

SP 91 is a practicum designed to develop presentation skills for worship. For the spring semester it will be focused on funerals, weddings, and the administration of the sacraments. Interested students are encouraged to sign up outside the speech studios for one of four sections. The course will be taught by Dr. Bill Levering and the Rev. Sally Willis-Watkins.
